

The University of South Florida's Institute for the Study of Latin America and the Caribbean and partnering departments are proud to host:

Green Card Stories

A book presentation and panel discussion on the face of immigration and reform

Saundra Amrhein, journalist, Green Card Stories author

B. John Ovink, immigration lawyer

Dr. Angela Stuesse, Assistant Professor at the Anthropology Department, co-founder of USF's Migration and Diaspora Research Cluster

Cleto "Sundy" Chazares, former migrant worker and current Hillsborough high school principal featured in Green Card Stories

Wednesday, February 22

6:00 P.M.

University of South Florida, Tampa
Patel Center for Global Solutions (CGS)
Room 131

Light refreshments will be provided.

